

Haere Mai!

Welcome to Rotorua

We hope you enjoy your stay with us in our beautiful city.

Rotorua is the heartland of New Zealand and home of Maoridom, world-famous for its geothermal activity, mountainbiking tracks, Maori cultural experiences and above all, its fantastic hospitality.

Just like anywhere in the world, we urge you to use common sense and take a few simple precautions to enhance your positive experience of this wonderful destination.

This flyer contains some important information for visitors, please take a moment to read it through.

The emergency telephone number in New Zealand is:

111

This can be dialed free from any phone.
Local Rotorua Police can be contacted 24hrs a day by phoning 07 348 0099 or visiting them in person at the big blue building, lake-end, Fenton Street.

DRINK SAFE:

To ensure public safety, there is a liquor ban in force in the central business district. Alcohol may only be consumed inside licensed areas provided by restaurants, bars, pubs and clubs.

Alcohol may not be consumed, carried or brought into any unlicensed public place in the area shaded red in the map below.

Our liquor ban is strictly enforced by Police. Those who breach the liquor ban may expect to be searched, have their alcohol seized and/or be arrested by the Police.
